No. 09-2778

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff-Appellee,

v.

ABDELHAMID SEDRATI,
Defendant-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois,
Eastern Division.

No. 00 CR 1043
Matthew F. Kennelly, Judge.

Order

Appellant's brief presents a single contention: that United States v. Demaree, 459 F.3d 791 (7th Cir. 2006), should be overruled. Demaree holds that a district judge must use the sentencing manual that is in force on the date of sentencing, and that doing so does not violate the Ex Post Facto Clause. We have been asked many times to reconsider Demaree and have just as often declined. Appellant does not present a new argument, so there is no reason for this court to give this issue further consideration. Appellant has preserved his contentions for presentation to the Supreme Court. Given Demaree, appellant's sentence is unexceptionable. The judgment therefore is affirmed.

* After examining the briefs and the record, we have concluded that oral argument is unnecessary. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a); Cir. R. 34(f).
